A very warm Welcome

High-quality theatre sits at the heart of everything we do here and this season contains some gems. Working with producer Lee Dean, we are proud to be launching the autumn national tour of Little Women. Our first in-house production will be Noël Coward's glittering comedy Blithe Spirit, co-produced with Blackpool Grand Theatre ahead of a national tour in 2026. We are then delighted to be working with New Wolsey Theatre on a major revival of Daphne du Maurier's classic haunting thriller Don't Look Now. Famously filmed in 1973 with Donald Sutherland and Julie Christie, this chilling tale is brought to life in a refreshed adaptation by Nell Leyshon.

Following the extraordinary success of last year's pantomime, our regular writing team of Pledsted, Brown and Wilsher have been cooking up another brilliant adventure, designed by 2025 Pantomime Award winner Katie Lias (Sleeping Beauty). This year we will be telling the story of Jack and the Beanstalk with all of the outstanding production values you've come to expect from a Wiltshire Creative pantomime.

Alongside our own work we have a packed programme of visiting theatre, comedy and music at both the Playhouse and Arts Centre. Ranging from original theatre with Stories from an Invisible Town and Too Many Greek Myths, to a celebration of the Arts Centre's 50 year anniversary with Passenger Club and Altar Club Return and An Evening of Salisbury Arts Centre History, to fantastic spoken word with acclaimed writer Chris Chibnall, there is something for everyone.

We hope you enjoy looking through the brochure and look forward to welcoming you to a Wiltshire Creative event soon.

Little Women

Wednesday 3 – Saturday 13 September | 7.30pm
Thursday & Saturday matinees | 2.15pm

Tickets from £12

Ages 10+

Anne-Marie Casey's masterful new adaptation of Little Women breathes new life into one of the best loved novels of all time.

Step into the world of sisterhood, courage, ambition, as the March sisters – tomboy Jo, beautiful Meg, sensitive Beth and spoilt Amy – navigate the challenges of the Civil War era, forging unbreakable bonds of love and family.

Inspired by author Louisa May Alcott's own journey into womanhood, Little Women is as relevant today as it was at the time of its first release, proving that women can be bold, persistent, self-assured, and the heroes of their own story.

Following the recent success of the Greta Gerwig film, this beautiful new adaptation, directed by Loveday Ingram (The Girl on the Train), is a celebration of women, filled with laughter, tears and a theatrical, heartwarming lifting of the spirits.

Little Women stars Belinda Lang (2point4 Children, Sister Boniface Mysteries) and Honeysuckle Weeks (Foyle's War, Calendar Girls: The Musical).

The Signalman

Monday 15 – Saturday 20 September | 7.30pm
Thursday & Saturday matinees | 2.15pm

Tickets from £12

Ages 12+

Middle Ground Theatre Company Ltd is delighted to announce a new extended adaptation of their hugely successful production of Charles Dickens' nerve-tingling masterpiece The Signalman. Set in 1880, this is the exquisitely unnerving tale of a tormented signalman who is haunted by visions of impending disaster on his isolated stretch of line. Can a well meaning traveller, who chances upon the lonely signal box while out walking, calm the man's fears before he spirals into self destruction?

Featuring a stunning set and video projections, this is the perfect way to spend a dark autumn or winter's evening...

The production stars Chris Walker and John Burton. Chris is best known for playing Rob Hollins in Doctors, as well as regular roles in Merseybeat, Playing the Field, The Bill and Coronation Street. John is best known for his ongoing portrayal of Sergeant Goodfellow in the successful worldwide series Father Brown, and as Alan Gordon in Brookside.

Don't Look Now

Wednesday 29 October – Saturday 15 November | 7.30pm
Thursday & Saturday matinees | 2.15pm

Tickets from £12

Ages 15+ | S G

Grief is a trickster. It plays with time, with memory... with reality itself. Dare to look – just don't look now.

A couple devastated by loss escape to the shadowed canals of Venice, hoping to leave their past behind – but the city has other plans.

As eerie visions blur the line between the living and the dead, an ominous presence stalks them through the labyrinthine streets. Fate is closing in – can one truly escape their destiny?

A masterclass in slow-burning dread and supernatural unease, Daphne du Maurier's Don't Look Now is a spine-chilling, thrilling descent into grief, guilt and the terrifying possibility that some warnings should never be ignored.

Stories from an Invisible Town

Friday 3 October | 7.30pm

Tickets from £16

Ages 14+

"Let me tell you about the imaginary town I lived in as a boy..." This collection of dark comic stories woven together by BBC award-winning writer, "the great Welsh storyteller" (The Stage), Shôn Dale-Jones, is as much about the imagination as it is about innocence and not knowing what to do with the things we know. Shôn takes us from the empty swimming pool up the hill to behind the woods, introducing us to five-foot Tarzan, Double Delyth and Lord Ivor as we feel the magnetic pull of the river suck us in. As this made-up town starts to feel more real, Shôn wonders what's happening to his imagination – it's running riot. Joyous, stomach-turning, moving and very funny – could this be the best show Shôn has ever made? It could be.

Recent shows by multi-award - winning Shôn Dale-Jones include CRACKING and THE DUKE.

Wiltshire Creative is a performing arts charity that produces joyful and life-enhancing experiences in Salisbury and beyond.

Our vision is to enrich the cultural and creative life of audiences, artists and participants of all ages. Our flagship organisation creates and presents the energy and ambition of Salisbury Arts Centre, Salisbury International Arts Festival and Salisbury Playhouse.

SALISBURY PLAYHOUSE

Salisbury Playhouse is composed of the Main House auditorium, The Salberg studio space and a friendly coffee bar in our foyer, alongside several rehearsal and community spaces.

SALISBURY ARTS CENTRE

Salisbury Arts Centre is a beautiful deconsecrated church, which is home to a vast performance space, a selection of meeting rooms and a studio space.

SALISBURY
INTERNATIONAL
ARTS FESTIVAL

Salisbury International Arts Festival enlivens the city with a vibrant arts programme every summer.
